"Day I Wrote You Off"

I saw some photos of a happy family
Hanging up on the thrift shop wall
I paid the man and I brought them back home
I feel better now when they don't call

Every once in a while
I see your face when I stare at the ceiling
I truly regret the day I wrote you off

Always dreamed that one day I'd leave home
And now I do it again and again
And here I go looking for my new home
Or shall I say looking for a best friend?

Every once in a while
I see your face when I stare at the ceiling
I truly regret the day I wrote you off

Every once in a while
I see your face when I stare at the ceiling
I truly regret the day I wrote you off
The day I wrote you off, the day I wrote you off
