I was at a funeral the day i realized
I wanted to spend my life with you Sitting down on the steps at the old post office
The flag was flying at half-mast
And i was thinking' bout how everyone is dying
And maybe it's time to lie
I don't know where we're going
I don't know what we'll do Walked in to the Thrif-tee Saw the man with the hollow eyes who didn't give me all my change
But it didn't me this time
'cause I know I've only got this moment
And it's good
I went to the gas station
Old woman honked her horn Waiting for me to fix her car
I don't know where we're going
I don't know what we'll do Laying in bed tonight I was thinking and listening to all the dogs and the sirens and the shots And how a careful man tries to didge the bullets While a happy man takes a walk
And maybe it's time to live
