so tell me what your gonna do (what you gonna do, when there ain't nowhere to run) when judgement comes for you (when judgement comes for you)
so tell me what your gonna do (what you gonna do, when there ain't no place to hide)
when judgement comes for you (cos it's gonna come for you)

Flava:

see you at the crossroads, decisions that you've gotta make on top of the day, decisions that you call fate is this what you hate, when love comes through it when that time comes, you can pull up the ourage to do it it's just mistakes in the worst form of it, you didn't know we were born for it and now we're coming all day, all night we're ready to give an explanation for life and how much you can survive

Krazy:

so what you gonna do when people hate you

Plat'Num B:

i might run, i might hide

Krazy:

but then they're gonna find you

Plat'um B:

no, (what) it's my own choice of path

Krazy:

but if you make the wrong decision face the after math now, will you ever learn, living a lie, you'll get burned

Plat'Num B:

i'm quick to make a u-turn, make decisions, change directions

Krazy:
you gotta take responsibility for your actions

Bridge:
up, up, up and we pray, and we pray
e, e, e everyday, everyday (what you gonna do)
up, up, up and we pray, and we pray
e, e, e everyday, still we lay

Chorus:
see you at the crossroads, crossroads (so you won't be loney)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
see you at the crossroads, crossroads (so you won't be lonely)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
(so you won't be lonely)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
(so you won't be lonely)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads

Flava:
it's the hip hop, flip the top spot pick pockets, blood, pain, where's it gonna stop. it's not why can;t we just live together, you know that all we gotta do is stick together and, we can roll all night long, rest in peace, write a little song cos, nobody wants pain and war, so we're ripping up the set and we're causing an uproar

Strider:
you live your life like a game rush into the roll with your life and now it's been sold

Reepa:
you're the weakest link in your own mind bet you wish you could turn back the hands of time, but you can't

Melo-D:
has to keep it on the d-low, life ain't good you know it ain't even so so my impact on this chin is like anuclear blow

(so you better make the right decision at the crossroads yo)

Bridge:

up, up, up and we pray, and we pray
e, e, e everyday, everyday (what you gonna do)
up, up, up and we pray, and we pray
e, e, e everyday, still we lay

Chorus:

see you at the crossroads, crossroads (so you won't be loney)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
(so you won't be lonely)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
(so you won't be lonely)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
(so you won't be lonely)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads

Krazy:

so go to everybody, so go to everybody who's willing to make a change so go to everybody, so go to everybody correct the wrong ways

i'm talking about everybody, i'm talking about everybody who's willing to make a change so go to everybody, i'm talking about everybody correct the wrong ways

Chorus:

see you at the crossroads, crossroads (so you won't be loney)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
(so you won't be lonely)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
(so you won't be lonely)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
(so you won't be lonely)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
see you at the crossroads, crossroads (so you won't be loney)

see you at the crossroads, crossroads
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
(so you won't be lonely)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
(so you won't be lonely)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
(so you won't be lonely)
see you at the crossroads, crossroads
