how did I catch that feeling oh boy was it a movie or a telly show I fell asleep dreaming of snow and I awoke as it knocked on my door and since that day I get my tan from sleeping under an instant sun it makes me feel like a superman now I'm the king

the king of the sun
postman came, dropped the post late in the morning opened up and it was a package full of sunshine read the note and it said "congratulations" 'cause you're the one who has won a Supershine Suntan
and since that day I get my tan
from sleeping under an instant sun
the king of the sun ...
