"Just Another Lie"

For all the times that I've done wrong you've paid it all back twice to me
Why don't we just get along this life was built on unity

(Pre-chorus)

Open up you wont change you'll only stay.
Cause you wont change (you'll never change) and I won't stay (I can't stay)

(Chorus)

It's just another lie to make me believe
It's just another lie to make me believe in you

I've done all that I can do to resurrect your hopeless point of view
I can't stand to see your face I can't stand to watch this got to waste

(Pre-chorus)

(Chorus)

It's just another lie to make me believe. I see you deceive to get what you need.
Honestly I could never understand why people wear a mask to cover up the inside.
In the end it's you and your reflection, fuck this I'm sick of this deception.
You made me believe I made you believe. Now you can see.
