I used to think that this was perfect, and wish that it was never ending
But those days are gone forever, it's something I'm not missing
There's a force, there's a voice in my head telling me nothing
About the times that you were cruel and mean And I don't care if you walk away, I'm here to stay and you need to hear

You make me sick, but I love what we're doing here
You make me sick, and I can't be the only one
You make me sick, but I love what we're doing here
You make me sick, and I can't be the only one

I have to take advantage before the moment passes by It's so hard to manage the ups and downs of your life Someone help, someone speak before I start to scream out Anything to break the silence You're holding me back, confined by doubt

You make me sick, but I love what we're doing here
You make me sick, and I can't be the only one
You make me sick, but I love what we're doing here
You make me sick, and I can't be the only one

Cause I need you, cause I need you here with me
When it falls through and I'm down upon my knees
There's a force, there's a voice in my head telling me
to Think about everything last time I believed, now I realize

You make me sick, but I love what we're doing here
You make me sick, and I can't be the only one
You make me sick, but I love what we're doing here
You make me sick, and I can't be the only one (Sick, sick, sick, sick, sick, sick, sick, you make me sick, sick, sick, sick, sick, you make me sick, sick, sick, sick, sick, sick, sick, you make me sick, sick, sick, sick, sick!
