Crossroads Lyrics

Bone, Bone, Bone,
Bone, Bone, Bone,
Bone, Bone, Bone,
So tell me what ya gonna do
When there ain't nowhere to run
When judgement comes for you
When judgement comes for you
So tell me what ya gonna do
There ain't no place to hide
When judgement comes for you
Cos it's gonna come for you

[Chorus]

See you at the crossroads, crossroads, crossroads
See you at the crossroads, crossroads, crossroads
See you at the crossroads, crossroads, crossroads
See you at the crossroads, crossroads, crossroads

So why you gotta go and pray
You're gonna make it some day
You got a job
So why you want a raise
Why you wanna act tough
Why can't you play
This whole fame thing
Just comes one of these days
And when it comes
You'll be one of a kind
But before this
Keep all this in your mind
Cos I will hold you
To the end of the line
Want all this
You'll be mad to decline

So what you gonna do
When everyday's the same
Try and do this shush
Just for a glimpse of fame
Didn't mean to do it

Just put yourself to shame
Didn't want to kill her
Just tryin' to play the game
When you reach the crossroads
Where you gonna go
Go with your conscience
Just let your feelings flow
Life's up life's down
But things can turn around
Innocent or guilty
You will soon be found

So what your gonna do when people hate you
Chat beat you they don't like you,
Cant run away coz they will find you,
Praying for answers what you gonna do,
Make decisions where u gonna go,
Take the crossroads go with the flow
You gotta cum eazy and then u gotta let go,
Ur living in a hateful world keep low.

[Breakdown]
Mmmm and we pray
And we pray
And we pray
And we pray
Everyday, everyday
Everyday, everyday
And we pray
And we pray
And we pray
And we pray
Still we lay
Still we lay

Decisions in life you have to make
Which part of it you take it's like dejavous
Stand by ur side stand next 2 u
B there in the middle when ur passing thru,
In the middle meet u at the crossroads
Between love and hate between good and evil
We can see u right thru where u told
The truth or a single lie
Compared to the time when u made that man cry
Don't wanna talk about the day ur gonna die
Soon or later that day will come
Where you have to make the right or wrong decision,
Which part of it u take, make good or bad,
Just separate things, u wanna do that shhh try and resist
At the end of the day it's up 2 u

Il b there in the middle when ur passing thru!

[Chorus]

(So you won't be lonely)

[x2]

(See you at the crossroads

See you, see you

See you at the crossroads)

[x2]

Who's that get off the train

Avirex jacket

With the poor with that rain

Why take that man's chain

No more trouble made

Livin' on the streets everyday

So lame

People walking past

Looking at you in shame

But they don't really care

Who's the one to blame

You're gonna take the wrong turn

You're gonna lose the game

You know it's not you're fault

That life turned this way

But people don't care

Don't hear what you say

And the way it is now

Is the way it's gonna stay

There's no choice left but to hope and pray

[Breakdown]

[Chorus]

(So you won't be lonely)

[x2]

(See you at the crossroads

See you, see you

[x2]
