Begin the quest - a clear destination we hit top speed - without hesitation a dangerous journey - but one we are willing to take

One on one with destiny - fate is sealed, behold the key emancipation for those who are willing to die

Forever be free

Minds are focused - the prize we have eyes on crossing landscapes - ablaze the horizons goodwill and fortune yet no one has ever escaped

Pray to be free again
saved ending their painful

Forever be free

From out of nowhere - not heeding their warning malicious rampage - now we lay here dying the ones who warned us are sealing our fate as we die

Forever be free
