"Hallowed Apparition"

Corruption of the mind - i live my life unscathed a small donation of green - will wash my sins away hypocrisy unveiled - a small price to pay for the pain you will endure - i'm saved another day

Hallowed apparition

I hang my head in shame - my hands held to the sky i kneel before the cross - as i ask the holy, why? mindset unholy - leaves a sacrilegious scar the hallowed apparition - has save my soul thus far

Hallowed apparition

Confess unto my sins - my anguish - so unreal can't erase the blood - i long for the pin you feel look into my soul - wretched visions of hate i repent before the cross and test the hand of fate
