"Hunt You Down"

Visit "Hunt You Down" on MotoLyrics.com

Running or hiding, you'll never escape
Live for the promise now you won't betray
You try to leave, I'll hunt you down

Eye-lock at first glance, first living in romance
Years down the path, there is no second chance
Until you pass you will be mine

I'll never stop to find a way
You dug your grave now you will pay
I'll never stop to find a way
You dug your grave

Promises made till the end you obey
Trapped in my web, there is no other way
There's no way out, this you will learn

Plead as you will, my mind you can't change
Drift to illusion, your thoughts rearranged
Abandon me now you will burn

I'll never stop to find a way
You dug your grave now you will pay
I'll never stop to find a way
You dug your grave

Living my life to obliterate yours
Beg for forgiveness now down on all fours
Too late to turn the hands of time

Human condition to lie and to sin
Heart into pieces now nobody wins
The mental scars can never heal

I'll never stop to find a way
You dug your grave now you will pay
I'll never stop to find a way
You dug your grave
