Lyrics: S. Drover

Stranded amongst the highest mountain
Unseen by the human eye
Knowing our voices cannot be heard
As many soon will die
Sub zero ÆfÂçâ, -" freezing
Blinding snow ÆfÂçâ, -" no end in sight
Isolation ÆfÂçâ, -" nullified
Will we survive the night?

Will no one hear our distant cries?
My life has flashed before my eyes

Without no food or shelter
Our chances to survive are low
Having lost our sense of direction
Will we escape this arctic cold?
As we eye this glacier prison
Knowing all but hope is lost
The plane crash ÆfÂçâ, -" now has left

Our bodies numb from frost
Will no one hear our distant cries?
My life has flashed before my eyes

Prey ÆfÂçâ, -" we will die if we stay
Escape ÆfÂçâ, -" we have to find a way

Solo ÆfÂçâ, -" Slav, Glen

Seeming endless journey
Our bodies are too numb from pain
We have the will and heart
But will we see the rest again?

Prey ÆfÂçâ, -" we will die if we stay
Escape ÆfÂçâ, -" we have to find a way
