Waiting to see - if you're an illusion revealing the curse - of my retribution fight for your freedom - the killer contains you lucid injustice my system unveils you.....to burn

You will burn

Mind filled with darkness - there is no redemption as i lay low - waiting your crucifixion

No moment will pass - that i don't condemn you as your eyes flicker - now i retain you..... to burn

You will burn

Plead for your life - i'm twisting your soul scream to me why? but i do not know my sould plagued with torment - for i must obey for ending your life - i assume no control..... to burn

You will burn
