"Centre Of Me"

Visit "Centre Of Me" on MotoLyrics.com

You're the centre of me
You are the way it all works out
And I keep going on, before you finally found me/(realign me)

You're the timing of me
You are the one when I'm in doubt That everything will work out for the best 'cause you see

Are we, staying close enough
Found me, (you) found me at the start
Time we, time we moved along

I wanted to find what you're waiting for
When everything I know still is yours
I know that I'll find what you're looking for
