It is late it's almost eleven why don't we go for a Drink how about if we go upstairs to my place
just one night and maybe goodbye don't you tell me that you're really not that kind of girl and you know it won't be me to change the things you want Anyway believe it or not just don't you ask me why It's been written that tonight is our night.
Just one night and maybe goodbye,
but you wont regret it at all,
and show me right now what you've got.
Are we doing anything wrong?
We are human after all,
and enjoy to pump and sweat while we are dancing.
You can stop whenever you want,
But tomorrow is not too far.
When the morning comes we'll follow a different star
Anyway believe it or not.....
And I know there'll be a place where we'll meet again one day
And I wonder if that day we're gonna feel that same.
I can't believe it it's really you.
You look wonderful tell me how's your life
It has been a while but I know that you're still the same.
Anyway believe it or not just don't ask me why
It was written that that night was our night.
Just one night and maybe goodbye,
but you wont regret it at all,
and show me again what you've got
