'cause all that I want is a silicon world... world... world...
world....

'cause all that I want is a silicon girl... so come into my silicon world... world... world..

I was playing with my mind
I was trying to see
How this world have could've been without you...
Siliconic trees in this world of ease
I want this and so much more.

I was flying with my mind
Lookin' around me
And I see there's no more room in the universe,
In the end I'll live,
Everything I'd give,
Every plastic dream alive

Chorus:
Cause all that I want is a Silicon Girl,
With Silicon lips
And Silicon hair,
Sha-lala-lalala,
You're my Silicon girl
So come into my silicon world ::repeat::

I was playing with my mind,
I was trying to see,
How this world have could've been without you,
Siliconic trees, in this world of ease,
I want this and so much more

I was flying with my mind,
Lookin' around me,
And I see there's no more room in the universe,
In the end I'll live,
Everything I'd give,
Every plastic dream alive....

Chorus ::repeat::

'cause all that I want is a silicon world... world... world...

'cause all that I want is a silicon world... world... world...

Chorus

'cause all that I want is a silicon world... world...
