"Your Clown"

i don't wanna be your clown again.
and i don't wanna live this triangle.
no i don't wanna be your clown now,
cause i long to carry on.
i don't wanna be your
i don't wanna be your
i don't wanna be your

in the beginning you were oh so clear.
it started out as something pure and sincere,
but now i see, the evil within.
so tell me what's the reason.
in the beginning it was so clean.
nobody else just love was all it could mean.
but now you tell me that there's somebody else,
but you don't want to leave me.

but i don't wanna be your clown again.
and i don't wanna live this triangle.
i don't wanna be your clown now,
cause i long to carry on.
no i don't wanna be your clown again.
no i don't wanna live this triangle.
i don't wanna live your life girl,
