[Eightball]

Yeah, uhh uhh uhh, yeah

Space Age forever, knawhatimsayin?

Space Age forever, Space Age baby, yeah

[Eightball]

The name of the game is get no sleep

Mash on niggas and always roll deep

Non stop hustle means all profits double

Young nigga tryin to see rocks like Barney Rubble

Vampire, circulate when the moon rise

Do dirt when most people got closed eyes

Rollin, livin off garbage and scraps

Niggas wouldn't even fuck with me if I had rap

Thinkin 'bout that man thats just another trap

Another nigga dead from another niggas strap

Space Aging every thought and everything I write

Livin for today, a nigga might die tonight

Just because a nigga think I'm a celebrity

They want to rob and jack and try to bury me

Forced entry embedded in my memory

Fightin sleep like Freddie Kruger tryin to get me

In the midst I wanna see it not hear about it

If a nigga wanna see it gotta be up out it

Can't do without it sayin 'til my life end

Everynight they like "catch me up again"

Chorus:

You say like daylight, its gonna catch me up again

Gonna catch me up, gonna catch me up again

Some people like gettin up when I'm just gettin in

Gonna catch me up, gonna catch me up again

[MJG]

I look up, I can't see the forest full of trees

Destined to make it through, regardless of the seas

Of evil that been planted sproutin concrete walls

So everybody have sex 'til its after all

You playin wrong, now you havin to climb so you can make it

Got the whole roll block and too thick for you to brake it
Don't fake it, you know its ??? hard for you to shake it
The camels tellin you to come on, you had to cake it
Mr. Mistake it, Mr. Do Nothing, uncle give me something
You mouth tellin me love, but I ain't feelin none
Stealin some, same positions I've been facin for years
Now I'm about to put some steak in this meal
Inflatin my bills, excusin you ho's who want fame
Using you ho's for one thang, fuck how you changed bitch
Its funny why you stayed around
And patience how you laid me down
Now you exspectin the crown
I'm full time, respectin the game
Checkin out the girls in change
A turd in the hand is far worst than a turd in ???
Let that shit float on, 'cause that shit get old

Chorus:

It seems that daylight is gonna catch me up again
Gonna catch me, gonna catch me up again
Some people like gettin up when I'm just gettin in
Gonna catch me, gonna catch me up again
Well well...
