I can see your smile
I see it light up in your eyes
In you, saw my life
Born in mine
Now as I turn away
From the memory we became
I am wondering
What the hell went wrong
With
Every Minute I Loved You
Every Minute I Loved You
Every Minute I'm Losing You
Each Moment I Loved You

When you came to me
You spoke to my soul
That I gave you to keep
With you I was home

I believed in love
That could not believe in me
Didn't even know
How alone I would feel

I can't feel my heart
Untouch me away
I'm running in my thoughts
There ain't much in me

With the wreath you laid
In the stream, you were gone
The last breath I take
I'll sing with this song
For you...

And I came back
And I came back
You were gone
You were gone
You were gone...
