Bow!

Goddamn, you're freaking me out
I mean, everything is wrong
I'm screaming out loud
Coz you're still going on
It's breaking me down
But you see, I was right:
Nobody cares that
We've crossed the line

You're riding the tide
Right on time, you're so high
And that life I will fight
Well, I'm not like you so
I'm too deviant

Here I'm awake
So far away
To be let go
On my way
I want to run away
Away with my soul

Oh man, you batter me out
Thinking, nothing's gonna change
The matter's about
How you're gonna play the game
You better back down
It's like you're everything I hate
So sick of this crowd
Please someone

Take me far away
From this place, I can't
Stay here another day
And you can't make me the same
I'm deviant

Here I'm awake
So far I wait

To be let go
On my way
I want to run away
A way with my soul
Back home

Take me home again
Take me home again
Take me far away
Let me go home

Here I'm away
So far away
To be let go
On my way
I want to run away
Away with my soul
Back home
Womb
Back home
Back home
With all my soul
