What are you

Well, they don't see me all that well
As far as I can tell
They're just blinded by their own beliefs
About me
Couldn't even stop and think awhile
Whoa, that you just might be wrong

Can't save you now
I can say it now
Sad to see you sleep around
You still won't settle down
I think we all can say it loud
What you're all about and
What you are...

It's so typical today
Oh, the way that she behaves
Like she don't know how to be herself
By herself
So afraid of being left out
Left outside of the crowd
'Cause she got nothing inside

I can't save you now
I can see it now
Sad to see you sleep around
You still won't settle down
I think we all can say it loud
What you're all about and
What you are...

Now you are so afraid
That you might not fit their game
So you start to change
But you'll never feel the same
Don't start just to say
That it's more than you can take

Can't save you now

I can see it now
Sad to see you sleep around
You still won't settle down
I think we all can say it loud
What you're all about and
What you are (3x)
What you are...

I can't save you now (3x)
You will never feel the same
The cause is more than you can take
You will never feel the same
Because it's more than you can take
