I haven't met you lately
I know it's been so long
I haven't seen you lately
I know that you've done wrong

Think time has made you crazy
Your mind is oh so gone
Think time has more than raised me
Don't need you anymore

Shooting your inspiration
Bullets don't feel so good
Turning to desperation
And I always knew you would

Think time has made you crazy
Your mind is oh so gone
Think time has more than raised me
Don't need you anymore

This is where you stand
This is where you pray
This is where you sit
And this is where you lay
This is where you stand
This is where you pray
This is where you sit
And this is where you lay

I left you there to bleed by yourself
You left me here to die alone
I left you there to bleed by yourself
You left me here to die alone
I left you there to bleed by yourself
You left me here to die alone
I left you there to bleed by yourself
You left me here to die alone, yeah

Think time has made you crazy
Your mind is oh so gone
Think time has more than raised me
Don't need you anymore

Think time has made you crazy
Your mind is oh so gone
Think time has more than raised me
Don't need you anymore
