Right
Yeah

Pennies from heaven and now the sky is falling I've cut the throat of purity with twisted thoughts of perversion
Naked perfection become my wrath
Raping, laughing, tasting, temptation

And I've tasted the bitterness of what was impure
Know what I'm thinking, turn my head upside down
From this moment now all is lost

Bleed
You bleed

Shut up and kill my pain
Shut up and kill my pain
I've gone heavy, heavy

I return to the child's cradle where my innocence was lost
Lost, as I dwell in the shadows of the drunken demons
Where I dance and play within each movement

Now shut up and kill my pain

Turn my head upside down what the fuck was I thinking?
From this moment and let you slip away, slip away
But you mean everything to me
And now you mean nothing to me

Shut up and kill my pain
Shut up and kill my pain
Shut up and kill my pain
Shut up and kill my pain
I've gone heavy, heavy
