Chronic infection spreads
Deformed fingers conjoin and self-amputate
Gangrenous limbs dislodge from position
Festering stumps quickly disipitate
As you begin rotting alive
Discolored blotches cover extremities
Blistered scabs rupturing arteries
Projectile vomit
Excreting black mucous and bile
A complete anatomy gradually falling to pieces
Necrosis, failure of peripheral nerves
Loss of sensation, thrusting into convulsions
Severe ulceration
Sores develop upon skin and organs
External lesions
Cartilage eroded by putrefaction
Total facial disfiguration
Nose melting into the skull
Jaundiced lumps swell over the eyelids
Glueing shut sandpaper skin
Chronic infection spreads
Untreated symptoms progress
Granulomatous tissue starts to collect
Degeneration of cells and flesh
Deformed fingers conjoin and self-amputate
Gangrenous limbs dislodge from position
Festering stumps quickly disipitate
As you begin rotting alive
Discolored blotches cover extremities
Blistered scabs rupturing arteries
Projectile vomit
Excreting black mucous and bile

Jaundiced lumps swell over the eyelids
Glueing shut sandpaper skin
