Late at night, lonely bed
Don't it make you want to be removed?
Soldier boy, save your breath
Everybody knows you broke the rules

Suddenly you're there
You're on the welfare line
Find your way out, find your way out

Broke and tired, gray and bare
Don't it make you want to be removed?
Golden girl, brush your hair
Everybody wants to know too soon

Suddenly you fear losing a race with time
Find your way out, find your way out

Set your flag on fire
Find your broken arrow
Hold it close and never let it go
Everybody wants to see you make it

Find your way out
You can find your way out

Set your flag on fire
Find your broken arrow
Hold it close and never let it go
Everybody wants to see you

Set your flag on fire
Find your broken arrow
Hold it close and never let it go
Everybody wants to see you make it
Everybody wants to see you make it
Everybody wants to see you make it
