Baby lemonade can be good for you too
Maybe you and me could find something to do

If you see me standin' by the side of the road Won't you give a run-a-way a ride "Cause you might not get it but at least you won't regret it
When you sit by my side

Baby lemonade can be good for you too
Maybe you could show me just what to do

When the cold wind blows and you're home all alone Wishin' you had spoken up I'll be knockin' on your window with a piece of summer shinnin'

And 'hello' in my eyes

Baby lemonade can be good for you too

Some people never understand the little child inside the big angry man but if you take my hand we'll figure it out

Baby lemonade can be good for you too
Maybe you and me could find something to do

I don't think its hard and I don't understand can't you just let it out can't you just get it out and stand by you're man ?
