Single Mothers (are the Heroes of the Modern World)
This is a message to the children
Of the Vanishing Man
Its time to live your life as free of all the hate you can

Somebody left you. But they left you in the loving arms
Of somebody you probably don't appreciate at all

Single Mothers (are the Heroes of the Modern World)

She's not a model or an actress or a big athlete She's winning races none of them could even quite compete
it might get tough at times
Wonderin how and why
Scrapin up the pennies til payday

Single Mothers (are the Heroes of the Modern World)

There is no big reward, academy awards
Don't get handed to the lady in the cheap dress

Single Mothers (are the Heroes of the Modern World)
