What do I seek in your dreams?
I'm seek nothing
I'm cleaning up

What was read on the couch?
I pile it up
It will die again
I clean only the way

Everything given is a possibility
It doesn't see itself in the beginning anymore
You don't wait from my cleaning

What do I seek in your dreams?
I seek nothing
I'm cleaning up

What comes in these illusions has never been done
Long before the floor, another forehead
Under the layers of history's history
You will not awake

What do I seek in your dreams?
I seek nothing

Am I dreamt of in your dark sea?
