I felt the wind shifting back of us
Hold on we have to run
We can't escape there's no way
They call our names through the speakers
No oh.....
When they find you
They'll retrieve you
Take you where sphered domes
Will freeze you
We can't escape there's no way
They call our names through the speakers
No oh.....
Men would die at sea for you
But all I want is you
Men would live and die for you
But all I want is you.....you....oo
The beautiful moments we shared together
Old and now
Don't make me drink this potion
I'll sleep forever
Until I wake under
The glacier ground
The ground,....the ground...the ground....oh yeah....
