She's made of sulfur in the night
All her friends say
Ring ring ring ring, where are you hiding?
Ring ring ring ring, where are you hiding?
Would you open your door?
Oh, would you open your door?

I could be there for you
Oh, I could be there for you
I could be there for you
I could be there for you, oh

You're part mystery
And partly drawn, drawn to all things breathing
So ring ring ring ring, keep on breathing
Ring ring ring ring, keep on believing
If you open your door, oh
Would you open your door?

I could be there for you
Oh, I could be there for you
I could be there for you

I could be there for you, oh

Could someone please walk through with me?
I've got nothing to hide, nowhere to be
Why do we have to come through here
'Cause nothing leads me to you

'Cause you are nothing what you seem
You're always looking out for me
You are nothing what you seem
You're always looking out for me

You'll never contemplate that I am near
And help goes unseen
You're the cave admitting who you choose
And I could be there for you

I could be there for you
I could be there for you, oh

I could be there for you
I will be there for you, oh
