The colorless words are burning our heels
As the bright lights of the city fade
Taking the chase and to curb our fear
As the bloodless moon cast its face

Something's not right, I can feel it inside
Something's not right

And you, and you would
Take the breath from my throat
And you, and you would
Take the cherished people that I hold

And you, and you would
Take the breath from my throat
And you, and you would
Take the cherished people that I hold

All in time you will be one of us
Painless, us blameless
Go to sleep, this won't hurt a bit
Shifting your shape to our shells

Something's not right, I can feel it inside
Something's not right

And you, and you would
Take the breath from my throat
And you, and you would
Take the cherished people that I hold

And you, and you would
Take the breath from my throat
And you, and you would
Take the cherished people that I hold

And they will try to make us forget ourselves
One by one, one by one
Call me crazy but they are after us
One by one, one by one

You don't have to know the truth

If you believe it, I believe it too
And you don't have to know the truth
If you believe it, I believe it too

Something's not right, I can feel it inside
Something's not right

And you, and you would
Take the breath from my throat
And you, and you would
Take the cherished people that I hold

And you, and you would
Take the breath from my throat
And you, and I would
Take the cherished people that I hold
