"Mr. Moon"

There I sat alone in the car
The weight of what you'd done all around me
Oh, all around me
And with the water rushing down my eyes
It was all that I could do, oh, not to scream, oh

But oh, it's alright, now it's over
Oh baby, this was the night
And oh, Mr. Moon shines down on my home
It's where I belong without you

Recall, I want a recall
You are crying on my telephone
But oh no, oh no, no, no, no, no

Bones crack and fingers blister
I might console you but look at my sisters
Brilliant like fireflies up in their bedroom
No, no, no, no

But oh, Mr. Moon shines down on my home
It's where I belong without you
And oh, what can be said
For this gift that has flown into my hand? In my hand

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

There I sat alone in the car
The weight of what you'd done all around me
Oh no, no, no, no

Oh, Mr. Moon shines down on my home
It's where I belong without you
And oh, what can be said
For this gift that has flown into my hand? In my hand
