It was the coldest november in recent memory
If there ever was a bad time to cross me, you would see

Now i'm not the kind of guy to go carrying an axe
But you made it so obvious, who wouldn't attack?

You're bad too much to hide
Tongue tied
Did you really think i'd buy?
Tongue tied

I had given you every last bit of my trust
And this is what happens when gold turns to rust
You'll get weaker, you'll get beat down
You'll get trampled from the inside
And when i get through with you
You're gonna wish you had died

You're bad too much to hide
Tongue tied
Did you really think i'd buy?
Tongue tied

Catch you in a
Catch you in a lie
Catch you in a
Catch you in a lie
Catch you in a
Catch you in a lie

Torn up inside
Tongue tied
You've had your chance to lie
Did you really think i would buy
Now you know i don't trust anyone
Tongue tied
What a shame that i caught you tongue tied
