Don't care if tomorrow comes, just want today to end
Tired of hiding my pride, don't know where to begin
My voice is dying, I've got so much to say Every time I speak up, no one hears a fucking word I say

How does it feel
To hit rock bottom and know there's only one direction
you can go
Every day I fall back further from where I want to be

What will it take for me to change
These people walk on me and I think it's strange Sometimes I want to give up, I won't let myself Sometimes I need to break through
I don't know what to do

How does it feel
To hit rock bottom and know there's only one direction
you can go
Every day I fall back further from where I want to be

Every day my body is put to the test
Every day is impossible to always do my best Numb to this world, numb to this pain
I watch this world drive me insane
Frozen in time, frozen in fear
Disappointed when I look in the mirror
I don't know why I want to cry
Every time I live I want to die

How does it feel
To hit rock bottom and know there's only one direction
you can go
Every day I fall back further from where I want to be
