Keep your eyes focused this time
Keep us in front of your sights
I've waited long for this, now it's our time for bliss
I just hope we have the time,
I stand broken please God hear my cries
He does every time

How many times have you watched me fall just to smile?
I've been through thick and thin
We struggled through, now we smile
So we're here now, just be ready
Brace yourselves 'cause we're not leaving

Keep your eyes focused this time
Keep us in front of your sights.
I've waited long for this, our time to shine
I just hope we have the time,
I stand broken, please God hear my cries
He does every time

Help us get out, out into the open
Help us grow, rise up

I stand broken, please God hear my cries
He does every time
I stand broken, please God hear my cries
He does every time, he does every time
