Fucking coward
Does it make you feel big and strong
To watch her cry out and bleed?

See the fear in her eyes
Won't kill the weakness in yours
Motherfucker

Vengeance comes soon
You won't stand in front of me
I'll avenge my family

Been waiting these four years to destroy you
To erase you from this place so we can breathe
Don't want you as a memory

Shadow cast you down
You, you're just a bitch
You think I'll let you forget?

Someday our paths will cross
And you're the one
Who will bleed

Salvation from my hate
Won't break my promise to the one
Who gave me this life

Been waiting these six fucking years
To get you out of my head

You all kill those memories
You all kill those memories
I'll kill those memories
You all kill those memories
Kill inside
