I've cursed this day with no regrets
With no compromise, curse your grace
Shallow, this hatred
That presses its finger to my lips

Simple love is to blame
Won't lay my head down with this shame
Kiss the sky, I'm always waiting here
On the ground, on the ground

Be warned, be warned
Be warned, be warned
Be warned, be warned
Be warned, be warned

Shallow, this hatred
That presses its finger to my lips

Be warned, she'll kill you
Be warned, she'll kill us all
Be warned, she'll kill you
Be warned, she'll kill us all

Be warned, be warned
Be warned, she'll kill you
Be warned, she'll kill me
