Make way for daddy's little whore
She's such a fake she can't stand being ignored
She'll tear you down and make you forget who you are
And she's taking you home tonight
She'll sacrifice her halo
I've been
Living in your lie
I have never in my life
Seen someone so cold
As the whore you are
Brought down by the weight of the word
She's not at all like all the other girls
Dead behind the eyes without a care in her life
And she's taking me home tonight
She'll sacrifice her halo
But all the ink in the world couldn't hide your pain
I've been
Living in your lie
I have never in my life
Seen someone so cold
As the whore you are
She's empty
Black inside
She's slowly losing her mind
There's a pain that she can't control
An emptiness that she can't let go
I've been
Living in your lie
I have never in my life
Seen someone so cold
As the whore you are
