Give up your heartache. Build your weapon to destroy them all. We have been stabbed to death. Now our hearts are replaced with this hole.

Eye for an eye
Life for a life
Together we are as one
The broken and heartless.

Destroy hypocrisy to eliminate the weak. behind every plastic smile is the blood of humanity. we are the prophets of the night and we will rise at our given time

Life for a life
Eye for an eye

Walk among the hopeless souls we are coming for you we are armed to the teeth ghost of invincibility were coming for you dearly demented the holes in our chest mark the bravery of slaves fighting for your life we take this on for the battered and broken

Eye for an eye, we fight the fight for the hopeless romantic life for a life we take this on for the battered and broken
Eye for an eye
We fight the fight for the hopeless romantic life for a life for those who felt like they werent good enough and i felt that way and we all felt that way now we are rising up in numbers
