You know, I just heard the news
My hands are numb, it killed the fuse
I'm sick, you'll see no bravery
I'll make no scene you see, I'll just reveal it.

I've got someone new you know it's true
I'll come back to you, you know, you do.

A rush of what's coming close
Think I said I've had, I've had my dose
A flirt, I thought we squeezed the fly

If I only knew that, that it was a lie

I've got someone new you know it's true
I'll come back to you, you know, you do.

Can't get no sleep at night
I'm awake, angry and blue
Now and then I understand
Hear my words when I tell you

I've got someone new you know it's true
I'll come back to you, you know, you do.
