I'm torn between two loves
But one had much more time
To see itself into my heart (and i'll never let it go)
The other, so young so beautiful
But she'll never understand
That i'll never let it go

Do i give in to this formality
Or do i chase what's in my heart
I cannot escape this
Love nightmare is what we share, whoa whoa
Love nightmare but you don't care, whoa whoa
Love nightmare

It's crazy how much motivation
I get from your negativity Watch this thing wind up and not down (just to prove you wrong)
You should have never said those things
And now you're sitting in regret
While i sing this song (and i'm gonna prove you wrong)

Do i give in to this formality
Or do i chase what's in my heart
I cannot escape this
Love nightmare is what we share, whoa whoa
Love nightmare but you don't care, whoa whoa
Love nightmare

(i can't escape this)

Love nightmare is what we share, whoa whoa
Love nightmare but you don't care, whoa whoa
(love nightmare) whoa whoa
(love nightmare) whoa whoa
Love nightmare
