Gouge out your eyes
Pull your heart to the floor
With my heart, my skin, my kiss
Stand back, drop to your knees,
I'll stand back as you bleed
My heart, my skin, my kiss

This blade, it feels so cold,
Baby hold me while I'm shaking
This knife has pierced my soul
I sit alone while I'm shaking
And yes I'll laugh out for you
With blind eyes, I'm shaking

Gouge out your eyes
Pull your heart to the floor
Sweetness loves me, takes me, hears me
Stand back, drop to your knees,
I'll stand back as you bleed
Sweetness loves me, takes me, hears me

This blade, it feels so cold,
Baby hold me while I'm shaking
This knife has pierced my soul
I sit alone while I'm shaking
And yes I'll laugh out for you
With blind eyes
I'm shaking

Gouge out your eyes
Pull your heart to the floor
My heart, my skin, my kiss
Stand back, drop to your knees,
I'll stand back as you bleed
Sweetness loves me, takes me, hears me

Wait for them, to come on in and take you
Away from me again
Wait for them, to come on in and take you
Black rose dying
