Take cover, run for your life?
cuz Id rather die than let you get away
Get away from me

Run,take cover and save yourself?
Its ok youll be going under

Fall to your knees is what you told me?
How can I believe?

When you live a lie?
To my face its nothing new to me

This is going too far?
You let them in on your secrets?
And theyre not following, not following?, not following
Now the best part is over?
I hope you savored the taste??

You think youll save us with your false impressions?
You think its working but you wont change me

Fall to your knees is what you told me?
?How can I believe?
When you live a lie?
To my face its nothing new to me??

fall to your knees
fall to your knees

lie to my face
its nothing new to me

fall to your knees
fall to your knees

lie to my face
lie to my face

Your time is running out
You should have known better?
Only you can save you now?

But you wont remember

Your time is running out
You should have known better?
Only you can save you now?
But you wont remember

Your time is running out
You should have known better?, known better
Only you can save you now?
But you wont remember
But you wont remember
You should have known better?
So whos going to save you now
