Her hand in the darkness
I follow for so long
your voice in my ear
carry me back home wishing you'd consider a change of heart but all are so bitter and we will never stop
we will never stop (x4)

A light in the darkness been dreaming for so long searching for a witness or means to carry on sweet talk for hours
'bout things we're gonna' do and sometimes I lose track of my heart but this could never work out oh ohh

Never stop
we will never stop (x3)

We will never stop (x4)

follow for so long
help me back home
why won't you consider? a change of heart (x11)
