Everyday's a brand new day
A chance to undo my mistakes
And be the me I know that I can be

Count my blessings one by one
Grateful for what God has done
Spending more time down upon my knees

And I know I am not alone
To feel like I was made for more, c'mon now

It's up to you and I to choose
To reach for a higher calling
A higher calling
Oh won't you spread the news
We were meant for a higher calling
A higher calling

I've made my share of mistakes
Bound by chains I could not break
And there's no one to blame it on but me

But love reigned down when it rained on me
To lift me up on my two feet
Now I live to give my life in return

And I know I am not alone
To feel like I can do so much more, so much more

It's up to you and I to choose
To reach for a higher calling
A higher calling
Oh won't you spread the news
We were meant for a higher calling
A higher calling

And we all know which road to go
We all reap that which we sow
Plant the seeds of love into our hearts and watch them grow

It's up to you and I to choose
To reach for a higher calling
A higher calling
Oh won't you spread the news
We were meant for a higher calling
A higher calling
