There's a fine line between love and hate
And you've crossed them both
There's a fine line between love and hate
And you've crossed them both

If I was a puppet then you'd be my master,
To pull my strings forever after
If I was a puppet, you'd be my master,
To pull my strings forever after
If I was a puppet, you'd be my master,
If I was a puppet, you'd be my master,
So just hold tight, we'll be alright

Now run, now run, we'll be alright
Now run, now run, we'll be alright
Now run, now run, we'll be alright

Don't cross the border line,
Cross the border line
Cross the border line
Cross the border line

There's nowhere to go to hide
There's nowhere to run tonight
Please just don't cross that line
There's nowhere to go to hide
There's nowhere to run tonight
Please just don't cross that line
There's nowhere to go to hide
There's nowhere to run tonight
Please just don't cross that line

If I was a puppet then you'd be my master
If I was a puppet then you'd be my master
