Can't feel my finger lose the sensation,
waiting on a cold night made for you.
It's after midnight, hope you're alright,
open up your curtains let me know.
When I see you cryin' I feel almost dying hanging on
for you girl
let me know where I am.
Take a picture of you and I'll keep it by my side.

Come on now put your love in me.
Come on now place your trust in me.
Come on now let your soul be free.
Don't worry, don't worry here's what I believe

There's no need for violence no protection let me keep you safe away from them.
I need to feel ya, need to be near ya,
I'll always be a part of you somehow.
When I see you cryin' I feel almost dying hanging on
for you girl
let me know where I am
Take a picture of you and I'll keep it by my side

Come on now put your love in me.
Come on now place your trust in me.
Come on now let your soul be free.
Don't worry, don't worry here's what I believe

Come on now put your love in me.
Come on now place your trust in me.
Come on now let your soul be free.
Don't worry, don't worry here's what I believe
