"Honey"

Honey you can never say goodbye
I don't remember if we'd stand the test of time
I'm already gone and I don't want to run

I'd said honey you know it's true that I want you
I'd said honey you know it's true that I want you

I got this feeling that we'll never be apart
I don't ever need to gaze in somebody else's heart
All that I want is to love in the sun

I'd said honey you know it's true that I want you
I'd said honey you know it's true that I want you
