Let me throw the first punch.
Let me hear the last word.
Take off everything you say you have and once again
prove yourself wrong.
Let me throw the first punch.
Let me hear the last word.

And who would've thought we'd be at it so long.
I'll bury this night along with the rest and tell myself it'll be okay.
Oh Take a deep breath away from the bottle and listen
so close to hear
Another I'm sorry.(x2)

(Take a deep breathe away from the bottle and listen to hear another I'm Sorry)

I am sorry.(x5)

Just remember that the worst is over and calm seas are headed this way. I'd Rather be screaming than left with nothing to say.(x3)

Sever the ties, let this die! (x8)
