I don't know who but it wasn't me
He wasn't all that you thought he'd be
And then broke your heart, girl you shoulda let me know
Cuz you left the kinda heart for me to show

Just how it feels when I'm next to you
Cuz damn other girls are nothin' next to you
No doubt in my mind cuz I know it's you
So tell me lady what you wanna do

Cuz lovin' you, it's all that, I know girl, why would I lie
If you want me to I'll give you just a little more time to decide
If I could be (if I could be) ya anythin' (ya anything)
Cuz you to me (cuz you to me) my everything

I'm talkin' to the mirror at 5 AM
Waitin' for your call in the pourin' rain
Sugar coated kiss and a lipstick mark
There are 7 ways of breakin' my heart

Ruined conversation and bad TV
Losin' all original chemistry
I'm walkin like I'm dancin on priceless art
There are 7 ways of breakin' my heart

Turn off the TV
We'll need to talk about the way cuz I thought I heard you say
Somethin' 'bout not bein' there for you
So what do I have to do to show I care for you

I'm singin' I could be the one, no more playin' girls for fun
Baby let me prove I got just what you need
If you give me half a chance to romance you
Cuzz you made me feel complete

Cuz lovin' you, it's all that, I know girl, why would I lie
If you want me to I'll give you just a little more time to

decide
If I could be (if I could be) ya anythin' (ya anything)
Cuz you to me (cuz you to me) my everything

I'm talkin' to the mirror at 5 AM
Waitin' for your call in the pourin' rain
Sugar coated kiss and a lipstick mark

I'm walkin like I'm dancin on priceless art
There are 7 ways of breakin' my heart

Ah yo uh switch
A couple nights gone by
She ain't called yet and I don't know why
Could it be I didn't give enough attention
Or was it somthin' that I said or didn't mention
Slow down, too damn fast
Bounce with another chick wit a fine ass
Not me, got the other girl on hold
I was on line 2, she was goin' on cold

Cuz lovin' you, it's all that, I know girl, why would I lie
If you want me to I'll give you just a little more time to
decide
If I could be (if I could be) ya anythin' (ya anything)
Cuz you to me (cuz you to me) my everything
