baby i know ya think about goin' leavin' it all behind somewhere a little easier on the eye maybe ya think ya gotta get mad or maybe it's all a game maybe you're just the fizz in his cheap champagne

we make it up and go along trying hard to explain
but

nothin' will ever change
makin' the best of a bad situation to find that your train is just leavin' the station but don't be afraid
everybody knows
that's no way begin

what if ya suddenly came into money what if your dad was queen (your highness) what if your mommy sang yellow submarine maybe you'll find a way to be happy with marmalade and tea maybe you'll find the pearl inside of me

to find that your train is just leavin' the station
that's no way begin
